

Review of the Week

Breezy News Items of Interest That Our Reporters Have Gathered During the Week

FREDONIA AND KELSEY.

On Thursday evening, Nov. 16th, at the Kelsey hotel, Miss Lena Conyer and Mr. Clifton King were united in marriage by Rev. M. E. Miller. It was a quiet home wedding; only a few friends of the popular young couple were present. The bride received a large number of useful and beautiful presents. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Q. M. Conyer, and is a most charming young lady, while the groom is a carpenter and contractor, and has a nice home at Memphis, where they will reside. They left Friday on the 11:45 train for Adairsville to visit the father of the groom, Mr. Wm. King, who is one of the best citizens of that place. May their lines in life always fall in pleasant places is the wish of their many friends here.

Mrs. Mattie Glenn, of Lyon county, was the guest of W. C. Glenn on Saturday and Sunday.

Ira C. Bennett and wife spent two days of last week in Princeton.

Highest market price for poultry, eggs, etc. Bennett & Son.

The protracted meeting at New Bethel closed Sunday with a baptizing at the mill creek.

Miss Grace Bennett and little sister Daisy left Tuesday for their home at Jonesboro, Ark.

The meeting at the C. P. church is still in progress, and the interest is good; there has been several conversions.

Winter shoes, overcoats, leggings, and gloves of all kinds.

S. C. Bennett & Son.

Ellis Easley, who was severely injured in a railroad wreck several weeks ago, arrived here this morning; he has been in the hospital at St. Louis, but is getting along very well now.

Mr. Jenkins was here Saturday, looking after subscribers, job printing, etc.

Miss Lucy Farris was visiting her brother Dr. R. C. Farris, last week.

Q. M. Conyer has rented the new hotel at Marion, and will take charge Nov. first. He is a fine hotel man.

Mrs. Ordway, of Fredonia, will take charge of the Kelsey hotel.

S. R. Cassidy of Louisville, was here Monday.

Staple and fancy groceries.

S. C. Bennett & Son.

Mrs. T. B. Hill left Saturday to visit her daughter, Mrs. Daisy Jackson, of Toledo, O.

Miss Bransford, of Dawson, is visiting her brother, R. R. Bransford.

The depot here was covered with tin last week.

IRON HILL.

Some of our farmers have sold their tobacco for a good price.

Mr. Al. Dean visited his relatives in this vicinity last Saturday and Sunday.

Claud Drennan is spending a few weeks with his brother near Anniston, Missouri.

Mrs. D. J. Hubbard, who has been visiting her father here, G. N. Fox, started for Dexter, Mo., Tuesday, to join her husband.

Joe H. Travis, of Blackford, and Frank Thomas, of Uniontown, were in this vicinity gunning Saturday.

Rev. Oakley preached at Sugar Grove Saturday and Sunday, his regular appointments.

W. F. Lamb is building a new residence for Hayward Phillips near the Asher hill, on the Marion and Shady Grove road.

W. J. Hill and wife, of Tribune, spent Monday with relatives in this community.

T. J. McConnell and family moved to Marion Tuesday; he was one of our best citizens and we hate to lose him.

When you are in Marion see Denman & Love's hats, going now at less than cost.

RODNEY.

Chester Truitt is on the sick list just now.

C. M. Clift and family were in Sturgis Wednesday.

Several farmers of this vicinity are talking of going to Arkansas.

Lacey Truitt was in Marion Monday.

John Sullivan, formerly of Mattoon but now working here, visited at his old home Saturday and Sunday.

W. H. Tudor, the oldest resident in this community, is in very feeble health.

J. N. Roberts, of Rose Bud, was in our midst Friday.

A large number of people from this vicinity attended the protracted meeting at Weston, which closed last week.

C. M. Clift and son Herman went to Clay Thursday.

Mich Hughes, of Weston was here Saturday.

Corn shucking is about over with this community.

Chester Truitt, Sr., the new mail carrier, is sure o. k.

Silas H. Sisk, of Sturgis, was in this section last week writing insurance.

Mrs. Mayme Drury, widow of the late W. T. Drury, has sold her farm and will move to Marion in the near future, where she contemplates keeping a boarding house. The people of this community regret to lose her, but all wish her success in her new location.

NEW SALEM.

We never saw so many people with colds; they are epidemic in this section.

Call and see Denman & Love's hats; they are now going at your own price.

Please to make the following correction, which occurred in last week's issue of the Press, to-wit: Mrs. J. N. Harpending died on the 7th November instead of the 17th Oct. Second: Services at New Salem 3d Saturday instead of 4th Saturday.

Esq. T. A. Harpending was on Tennessee river on business recently.

Our mining interest seems to be on the boom. The Cullen, Riley, and Nancy Hanks are in full blast, their whistles echo over the hills of Livingston and Crittenden counties morning, noon and night, and each one is working a full force.

Very little plowing is being done here.

Berry Davis and family of Livingston county, spent Sunday as the guest of relatives in this section.

Rev King filled his regular appointment at New Salem, 3rd Sunday.

The worst place on the public road leading from Salem to Marion is at the branch on the Carter farm; we believe if the Hon. Judge Towery would make a trip to and examine this crossing he would not hesitate to put a bridge over it for is almost impassable. Judge, come and see it.

Judge Mahan has started a sheep ranch; if his flocks increase like a certain county official's who lives in an adjoining county, and who used to live in this section, he will have to buy more land.

Most every farmer has his lands posted. There is so much reckless shooting that the land owners have been compelled to look to their own interest or perhaps have some valuable stock killed, or maybe some of their family.

John L. Harpending spent last week in Ills.
